QUARTERLY BKPCA NEWSLETTER

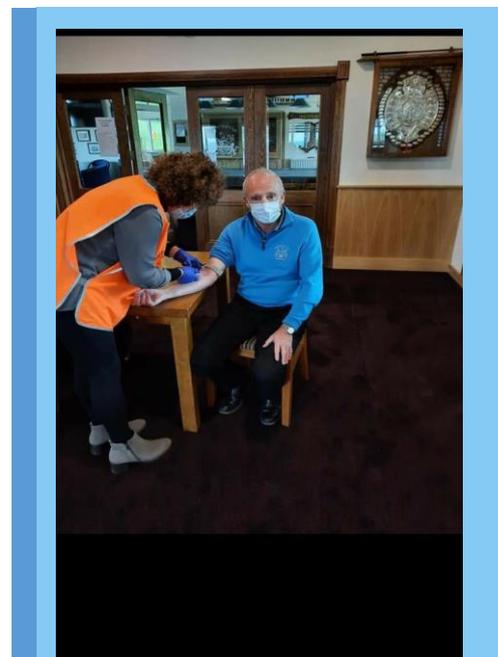

Home Test Kits Now Available!.....

Since we made the decision to postpone the test events we had planned for this year, we have been contacted by men who have found that due to Covid-19 their own GP's and hospitals were not carrying out tests. They were unable to continue with their surveillance and were insisting they needed help. These men were very anxious and needed a solution to their problem. So in conjunction with the Graham Fulford Charitable Trust, we are launching a PSA home test kit. This small finger prick test can be ordered online and performed in the comfort of your own home. More info can be found at <https://bkpca.mypsatests.org.uk/>

Hello all! The Covid-19 Pandemic has had not only a profound negative impact on health and care services in the UK but also the BKPCA's ability to run our life saving PSA testing events and our fundraising capabilities. We have however managed to run a small private test event at Glenview Golf Club in Burnley this October before the tier 3 restrictions were imposed. This event was open to members only to allow us to monitor how we could run future events with the government restrictions in place.

The event was a great success, we tested 86 men of which 78 men received Green results, 5 received Amber results and 4 received Red results. The men with Amber and Red results have been referred on to their GP's for further testing. Our usual NHS Phlebotomists, Rhett, Amanda,

Emma and Le-Ann gave up their Sunday to support us as always and we continue to be truly grateful for their help during what will be a very busy period for all NHS staff.

Sadly the fundraising plans we had for this year have been hit hard. But there's lots of ways you can help us raise the much needed funds so we can continue to test men for the early signs of prostate cancer. Are you planning to take on a challenge of a lifetime? Why not raise money for us while you do it? We can help you get started with setting up donation web pages, printed sponsor forms and we will help to publicise your efforts to spread the word.

So if you feel like jumping out of a plane? Running a marathon? Organising a bake sale? Just email info@thebkpca.com with your ideas and we will do all we can to help!

Shop and donate! Sign up to the Easyfundraising site and then shop as normal. The BKPCA will receive a donation from the retailer without it costing you a penny!

We would like to say thank you to Simon and Peter, our dedicated fundraisers out and about in East Lancs encouraging people to sign up to our Lottery, Covid compliant of course. Over the last few weeks they have signed up a whopping 60 new members! So, if you see them out and about, please give them 5 minutes of your time to learn about the life saving work we do.

We also have a team of fundraisers in Hampshire highlighting the important work we do and the Lottery.
